

Holmes Center: November Update

NHDOE, Professional Standards Board, AAQEP, CAEP

NH Department of Education:

1. There are now 3 pathways to licensure in New Hampshire.
 - A. Approved Educator Preparation Program
 - B. Demonstrated Competencies
 - C. Site-Based Licensing Plans

Professional Standards Board: (Submitted by Chris Benedetti)

1. Elementary Educator rules still have approximately 2 years remaining before expiration.
2. Professional Educator rules expire December 2021(the next set of rules to expire), so a proposal should be submitted to the review process earlier in 2021.
3. Library Media Specialist proposed updated rules were presented.
4. The new pathway rules went into effect in October, but there have been some glitches with the statement of eligibility that will be presented to the PSB in December.

AAQEP:

- Seeking Council for Higher Education Accreditation. Meeting in November. Decision expected in May 2021.
- NHDOE/CTE committee to draft an MOU with AAQEP hasn't met yet.
- PSU's first annual report for AAQEP (Initial Teacher Cert. Programs) is due December 31, 2020. This will be posted on the Holmes Center website.
- AAQEP website now has a members only portal. AAQEP encourages faculty to create accounts.

CAEP:

- NHDOE/CTE is drafting a new MOU with CAEP; outlined in the October update.
- National Recognition SPA submission cycle begins March 2021 for the Spring 2024 visit. Our self study report is due 6-9 months prior to the Spring 2024 visit. Please inform the Holmes Center if/when you plan to submit your SPA report.
