Program Leader Responsibilities Acknowledgement

In addition to the common leadership duties, I understand that Int'l Programs (IP) include additional duties and responsibilities, in which I will be expected to take an active role. Additional duties/responsibilities may include, but are not limited to the following:

- FOR CREDIT-BEARING PROGRAMS ONLY: Assurance that the proposed IP is an academic, credit bearing program for all participants.
- FOR CREDIT-BEARING PROGRAMS ONLY: Arrange for CRN assignment with the Registrar
- Marketing of program and recruitment of students as well as participation in all activities related to marketing and recruitment for the IP (website, flyers, fairs, info sessions, etc.)
- Working with your provider, ensure all local arrangements are made—logistic, transportation, site visits, accommodation.
- Notify GEO of any proposed changes in itinerary, participants etc. Changes to the original program must be approved in advance by GEO and in consultation with Deans (by a pre-determined deadline agreed upon by GEO and faculty).
- Complete IP risk management orientation with GEO and Provider, including review of all PSU policies.
- Familiarize yourself with the Department of State's and CDC's website relative to the country you will be traveling to.
- Work with GEO to conduct a pre-departure orientation* with students. [*GEO will determine content regarding travel, safety, liability, etc.] Attendance of pre-departure orientation is required by all trip participants.
- Attend P-card training and manage and account for all funds related to the IP – before, during and after the program, consistent with University policy
- Have a working cell/satellite phone available at all times while away during the entire duration of the IP.
- Obtain proof of any required vaccines, etc, by participants
- Obtain 'thumb drive' of participant documents (ie passports, etc) from GEO
- Notify GEO upon the group's arrival and return.
- Accompany students to all IP scheduled activities and develop a student supervision mechanism during the entire IP while away.
- Assist the Provider in mediating language difficulties, cultural sensitivities and local community relations for students

- As a result of these additional responsibilities, understand that family members or friends may not accompany you on this trip.
- Submit all travel expense forms/pcard receipts within 10 days of your return, or as required/dictated by Financial Service Center (FSC).
- Participate in a debriefing meeting with GEO within 2 weeks of your return

Program Leader Risk Evaluation Form

Before approving an international abroad program, it is important to evaluate any unusual or elevated risks that may have an impact on participant well-being. By signing this form, you verify that you have considered the risk factors participants may encounter while abroad. You also verify that the required supplemental documents (listed below) addressing the program's liability, health and safety are accurate, to the best of your knowledge. Finally, by signing you verify to work with the chosen third-party provider on all aspects of logistics and management of the trip while in-country.

Is there currently a State Department Travel Warning or Alert for the program location? If yes, please specify Warning or Alert. [NOTE: PSU does not allow trips/programs to travel to countries with Level 3 or Level 4 travel warnings, or specific types of Level 2 warnings.]

Outline medical or health risks in the country/region (vector-borne diseases, accidents, injuries, epidemics, etc.)

List required or recommended vaccinations or medications.

Outline any additional risk factors participants should be aware of (crime, environmental, sociopolitical, etc.)
